

Red flags are on the rise during the recession

Since September 2008, BackCheck has exposed significantly more red flags associated with candidates in the Energy and Utilities Sectors.

80% of clients in the Energy & Utilities Sectors have experienced an increase in red flags associated with their candidates' criminal histories.

As an industry, an 11% increase in red flags has been observed in the employment histories of potential candidates.

A major producer of hydroelectricity has seen a 215% increase in red flags associated with a candidate's past work performance.

BackCheck uncovered double the number of embellishments in education claims made by candidates applying to a Canadian energy firm.

Industry Wide Reference Check Red Flag Rate by Percentage

'Desperate People Do Desperate Things'

More than ever, it is important to thoroughly screen your candidates to ensure you are hiring the most qualified and suitable employees for your organization. Use a Complete BackCheck to hire the right candidate the first time.

For more information on how BackCheck can help protect your company during the recession, please contact your Account Executive.

Phone: 1.877.308.4663 | Email: info@backcheck.net | Web: www.backcheck.net

